

You are invited to a special fundraiser for
Orchestra Santa Monica
"An Afternoon with Schubert"
Sunday, January 22, 2017 at 2:00pm at the home of
Mimi Yu and Alex Chai

Enjoy a "Schubertiade", an afternoon of song, poetry and chamber music by the greatest of song composers, and help support
Orchestra Santa Monica!

Enjoy a special tasting of Austrian wine, together with Viennese pastries and other refreshments at a lovely home in Santa Monica.

Tickets are $70 per person

Order tickets online at www.OrchestraSantaMonica.org/buyTickets.html

or call the OSM office at 310/525-7618

Please order tickets by Monday, January 16

Featured Artists

Elissa Johnston, soprano

Elissa thrilled OSM audiences last season with her performance of Barber's Knoxville: Summer of 1915. One of our area's most acclaimed singers, she regularly appears as soloist with major Los Angeles organizations such as the LA Master Chorale, the LA Opera, and the Santa Monica-based Jacaranda series.

Gary Bovyer, clarinet

OSM's principal clarinet, Gary performed Mozart's Clarinet Concerto with the orchestra last season. He is also Principal Clarinet with the Long Beach Symphony and is active as a teacher and chamber musician.

Robert Ward, pianist

Robert Ward is one of our area's most distinguished piano teachers, serving on the faculties of Cal State LA and the California Institute of Technology. Professor Ward is also the director of Concerto*Fest*Austria in Vienna and a long-time member of the Austrian-America Council Advisory Board.

Allen Robert Gross, pianist

OSM's Music Director and Conductor has enjoyed performing as a chamber musician and accompanist throughout his career in Europe and the United States. He also directs The Caltech Symphony.